POLICE CASE IS UP TO JURY

Verdict Probable Late in Day in Goebel-Eberle Trial

TESTIMONY IS COMPLETED

Many Witnesses Take Stand During Session Today

The Goebel-Eberle case will go to the jury this afternoon. After the completion of the testimony of J. P. Kolt, patrolman, the city rested its case. Although the defense called no witnesses to the stand, it announced that it, too, would rest. A verdict Tuesday afternoon is probable.

John J. Jackson, hearing the case, ordered a five minute recess. At the completion of this, the arguments of the counsel started. It is estimated that each side will take about 15 minutes, and the jury will take the case.

At the close of the noon recess, Thomas Arnold, a farmer residing in Jackson, was called to the stand by the city. His testimony showed that the officers appeared to be acting in their official capacity. When they remonstrated with the men, Arnold declared, it was when several members refused to obey the officers' demands to disperse. Arnold further testified that the officers did not appear drunk to him.

Ray C. Blair, patrolman, testified just prior to Kolt. Blair's testimony bore out that of Arnold's inasmuch as Goebel and Eberle were serving in their official capacity. Blair said, appearances were more to the effect that the men were "sore" rather than drunk.

EDMUND FIRST WITNESS.

Walter Aldrich, 414 S. Pine-st., a cook, was the first witness called by the city. He testified that he saw Goebel and Eberle in the morning. Aldrich testified that Eberle after ordering him away from Smith's cigar store, where the brawl occurred, kicked him.

Frank Ward, 617 Madison-st. testified that Eberle also placed the muzzle of his gun in his ribs and struck him.

The former police sergeants did not appear intoxicated to Virgil Kerr, 624 Madison-st., the third witness for the city to testify. In the testimony offered Monday afternoon by Earl Smith, proprietor of the store, he declared that Kerr came out to the edge of the sidewalk and informed Goebel and Eberle that "Smith is not a bootlegger." Kerr, on the witness stand, Tuesday, denied making that statement.

Chief Officer, 123 E. Market-st., testified that the officers did nothing apparently out of the ordinary. Neither did they appear to be intoxicated to him, he said.

LATE ON SCENE.

Dick Judkins, 1037 W. Market-st., was called to the stand by the city. He declared he was a late arrival at the scene, and saw nothing of any importance in the case.

The next witness called was Roll Eberle, motorcar, who said he brought Eberle from Smith's store to his headquarters, where Eberle presumably telephoned Judge Stanton, requesting that executive to issue a search warrant, permitting them to go to Smith's store in search of liquor. Glover also testified that he heard Goebel declare that "he would blow the lid," but did not know to what he referred.

Curtis Hall, 18, 1107 E. Kibby-st., declared he stood in front of the hotel, which is situated near the cigar store, and saw Eberle place a revolver to the ribs of Ward while the two were standing in front of the Interurban drug store, at Market and Union-sts.

O. R. Smith, 117 E. Elm-st., brother of Earl Smith, testified.

Goebel and Eberle, two former police sergeants, are accused to disorderly conduct on the night of May 21, and early morning of May 22. It is alleged the two men, while under the influence of intoxicating liquor went to Smith's place where they started a brawl. They are alleged to have struck a number of occupants of the store.

Mayor Burkhardt, thru whose efforts the men are being tried, remained in place at City Solicitor Garling's side, when court opened Tuesday morning, and remained about the day apparently offering suggestions to Garling. Repeatedly the city solicitor conferred with the chief executive, while examining a witness.

STRIKE IS SETTLED

WASHINGTON. — (By United Press.) Chairman Lasker of the United States shipping board, today was ready to sign an agreement framed by representatives of striking marine engineers and Secretary of Labor Davis.

S. Brown, head of the marine engineers, already has signed the agreement, and Davis will try to follow the settlement of the engineers' strike by reaching agreements with striking seamen, cooks, firemen and radio operators.

Private shipping owners have so far refused to enter into any agreement with the strikers, but officials hope that action of the shipping board in accepting an agreement will influence private operators to do so since many of them are running shipping board vessels.

LOW NECK TABOO IN FINAL EDICT TO WOMEN

STON, Ill.—(By Associated Press.)—Zion's road repair force soon may be augmented by women, if Overman Wilbur Glenn Voliva keeps his latest pronouncement against women who wear dresses which expose more than their necks to the "junction with the collar bone."

Three women already have been warned by police and presented with printed notices giving them a "reasonable time to retire from public view."

Last night at the tabernacle, Voliva issued his final warning. "The police," he said, "will arrest any woman in this town that goes around the streets half naked. I will not bail you out, either, and neither will your husband. You will have to pay your fine or work it out on the streets."

KABER SILVER IS RECOVERED

Death Home Property Found in Fortune Teller's House

NEW LINK IN MURDER PROBE

Diamonds Declared Given in Payment for Killing

CLEVELAND. — (By Associated Press.)—Silverware, declared by Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber to have been stolen on the night her husband, Daniel F. Kaber, was murdered, was today in the possession of County Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton. It was recovered last night from the home of a woman fortune teller, who said it was placed there by Mrs. Kaber three days before Kaber was stabbed to death two years ago by alleged hired assassins.

Mrs. Kaber, her mother, Mrs. Mary Brickel, her daughter, Marian McArdle and Mrs. Brimma Colovito, a midwife, are under indictment for first degree murder in connection with Kaber's death.

IN KABER WRAPPERS.

The finding of the silverware is declared by Prosecutor Stanton to be among the most important developments of the case thus far, as Mrs. Kaber has said it was stolen by the murderer of her husband. Following her arrest in New York, Mrs. McArdle is said to have told officers there that her mother removed the silverware after Miss McArdle had tried open the buffet door. The silverware was said to be in the wrappers said to have been used by Mrs. Kaber.

Another important development, in the opinion of Prosecutor Stanton, is an alleged statement by the daughter of the fortune teller that she was in Mrs. Kaber's home when Mrs. Kaber gave a diamond ring and a watch, which belonged to her husband, to a man as part payment of a fee he claimed for committing the murder.

The fortune teller and her daughter corroborated a previous statement of Mrs. Colovito that Mrs. Kaber had given them an envelope containing $500. This, they said, Mrs. Kaber directed be given to Mrs. Colovito, who was to pay the assassins.

FINGER BITTEN.

They also declared, Prosecutor Stanton said, that they could identify the men who, they allege, actually did the killing, and who, they declare, frequently called at their home and threatened their lives unless they induced Mrs. Kaber to pay them $5,000, which, it is alleged, was the price agreed on. Identification could be made, they said, of one of the men by a finger, the top of which was bitten by Kaber in the struggle when he was stabbed.

An automobile behind held by the police was identified by the fortune teller as the property of one of the men for whom the police are searching.

Neither Mrs. Kaber nor Miss McArdle were present during yesterday's questioning of the fortune teller, her daughter, son and son-in-law. It was the first time since Mrs. Kaber's arrest in New York a week ago that she has not been submitted to grilling.

Mrs. Colovito was to be arraigned today before Judge Maurice Bernon in criminal court on the murder indictment.

WOMAN INJURED

Mrs. Ada Manhard, 219 S. West-st., suffered injuries Monday evening when she fell while descending into the cellar of her home. Both ankles were sprained and she was bruised severely. She is receiving treatment at home.

EMERY IS CHOSEN LEGION CHIEF

Michigan Man Succeeds Galbraith as Commander

IN BIG BATTLES OVERSEAS

Wounded in Arm During Meuse-Argonne Drive

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—(By Associated Press.)—John G. Emery of Grand Rapids, Mich., was unanimously elected national commander of the American Legion at a meeting of the national executive committee today. He succeeds Colonel Frederick W. Galbraith, Jr., who was killed in an automobile accident here last Thursday.

Thomas J. Bannigan, of Hartford City, Conn., was elected vice-commander, succeeding Mr. Emery in that position. The other candidate for the place was William G. Zettliffe, of Chicago.

Following his election, Commander Emery announced he would fill the speaking dates arranged by the late Mr. Galbraith so far as possible. Mr. Galbraith was killed in an automobile accident here last week while on his way to catch a train to begin a speaking tour in the interest of the legion.

EMERY'S WAR RECORD.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—(By Associated Press.)—Major John G. Emery, named commander of the American Legion to succeed Colonel Frederick W. Galbraith, Jr., saw much of the fighting in the American troops participated in during the world war.

Major Emery entered the second officers' training camp at Ft. Sheridan, August 27, 1917. After finishing the course he was commissioned a captain of infantry and sent to France with the first group of Americans. He at first was assigned to the railway transportation office at Blois, France, and remained there until February 20, 1918. Later he attended the first corps school at Gondrecourt until March 24, when he took charge of Company F, Eighteenth Infantry, first brigade, first division.

WOUNDED IN ARM.

He participated in all the major actions with his regiment in 1918, at Cantigny in April, May and June; at St. Mihiel in September and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive in September and October. He was commissioned a major of infantry August 30, 1918.

On October 9, 1918, during the Meuse-Argonne drive, Major Emery was wounded in the left arm and was invalided home and discharged at Camp Custer. Soon after his return to Grand Rapids he was elected a member of the Grand Rapids city commission, a position he has held since that time. Before entering the service he was a real estate and insurance broker.

Major Emery was born July 4, 1881 in Grand Rapids.

As vice-commander of the American Legion, Major Emery was a close friend and confidant of Commander Galbraith.

BOY IS DROWNED

Stubbish Autoist Blamed for Death of Toledo Lad

TOLEDO. — (By Associated Press.)—Russell Pluding, 13 years old, was drowned while swimming in the Maumee river last night. Before he could arrive another lad, Walter Dolack, 15, dove into the river and brought the body out.

While responding to a call with a lungmotor, police emergency ambulance was held up on a bridge by a stubborn automobile driver, who persisted in driving slowly ahead of the police siren and bright lights which the car burned purposely to warn traffic.

The crew of the police car reported that five minutes which was lost because of the stubborn motorist on the bridge may have cost the life of the Pluding boy.

The body had been in the water about twenty minutes and efforts to revive him were futile.

STILLMAN CASE TO OPEN TOMORROW

Wife Declares She Is Better Prepared For Battle

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y.—(By United Press.)—Mrs. James A. Stillman's courage has been strengthened for resumption of hearings in her husband's divorce suit tomorrow by the reception of thousands of sympathetic letters, she told reporters today.

These letters have reached her from all parts of the country and Canada and even from Europe. Most of them are from women.

"I know I am right in this matter and am perfectly confident of winning," she told newspapermen whom she talked with at the home of John E. Mack, acting guardian for two-year-old Guy Stillman, whose legitimacy is questioned.

"If I did not believe so, I would be in a sanitarium or some place with flowers growing over me," she said.

Mr. Stillman is alleged to be a "rough ocean voyage," adding "it is nothing at all. I will pass away and I will arrive safely."

"I want to thank all the people who have written me," she continued. "It has been really wonderful. It has given me courage and I can think of no better way of reaching them than thru the newspapers. These people have all written that they believe in me."

Mack cautioned Mrs. Stillman several times about discussing her case, but she ignored him.

Mrs. Stillman's counsel have agreed that her counter-charges will name only three women. These are Mrs. Florence Leeds of whose two-year-old son, Jay, Stillman is alleged to be the father; a Swedish massage known as "Clara" and a society woman known as "Helen."

Stillman was said to be ready to produce two additional witnesses from Montreal.

MASON CONVICTED IN SHORT TIME

Defense Declines to Offer Evidence at Trial

OFFICERS ONLY, TESTIFY

Prisoner Begs for More Freedom in Jail

John Mason, first of the trio of alleged bandits arrested in Lima on May 21, after a running gun battle with police, was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons by a jury which heard his trial in court Tuesday. It was one of the shortest criminal hearings in Allen-co in years.

The jury was sworn at 9 o'clock. In three-quarters of an hour the testimony was concluded. The jury took the case for deliberation at 10:40 o'clock. At 11:20, a verdict was returned.

Instead of the foreman of the jury signing the verdict, as is customary in criminal cases, the verdict was returned with every juror's name attached. Another verdict was hurriedly prepared and returned with a lawfully signed verdict.

Mason turned white while waiting for Clerk of Courts Clement to read the jury's findings.

After he had recovered somewhat, he accompanied his attorney to Judge Becker's bench, where he asked that he might be released from solitary confinement in the jail. "I've done nothing," Mason told the court. "I've been in solitary confinement there for more than 30 days and I'd like a change." Judge Becker said Mason he would talk the matter over with Sheriff Baxter and then decide.

Mason was indicted on the charge of carrying concealed weapons on May 21. He had entered a plea of not guilty. Mason did not take the witness stand in his own behalf. Neither was one witness called by the defense in his behalf.

The state called as witnesses Patrolman James Ramsey, Frank Kuster, William Kipker and C. R. Hamilton, Chief of Police Roush, Roy Bowersock, special investigator for the prosecutor's office, and Clarence Fraunreiter, deputy sheriff.

THREATENED DEPUTY.

Deputy Sheriff Fraunreiter, on the witness stand, declared that before entering the home of Mrs. Anna Dempsey, 930 Reese-ave, where he was arrested the day of the gun battle, drew a revolver from his right hand coat pocket, leveled it at him and shouted "Stop."

Patrolman James Ramsey, who said he was ordered to search the Dempsey residence by Chief Roush, said he found a large revolver. On cross-examination, Patrolman Ramsey refused to say the gun exhibited by the state was the one taken from the house. He declared he turned the weapon over to Chief Roush. He said it very much resembled the weapon of the state's exhibit.

Chief Roush presented the gun and said it contained six cartridges. Judge Becker ordered that the gun be unloaded, as soon as presented by Roush. Both the pistol and the cartridges went into the jury when they started their deliberations.

Patrolman Hamilton testified that he saw some metallic substance in the hands of Mason, as he ran, but that he could not say it was a gun. The state rested its case at 9:15 o'clock. The fifteen-minute recess was had and arguments were begun at 10 o'clock. It was 10:28 a. m. when Judge F. C. Becker began his charge to the jury.

PRISONER NERVOUS.

Thruout the trial Mason was in an apparently nervous condition. He fidgeted in his chair, frequently conversed with his attorney. He wore a suit of dark clothes, a soft collar, with modest tie, brown low shoes and dark blue hose.

During the intermission before the arguments to the jury were begun, Mason held a conference with his wife. She came here Monday evening to remain thru the trial of her husband. During the time witnesses were giving their testimony, Mrs. Mason sobbed, as she sat on a chair just inside the railing which divides spectators from court and counsel and witnesses.

In the conference with her husband, Mason held her hands in an apparent effort to console her, while tears streamed down her face. She is a comely-looking young woman, apparently some years younger than Mason.

Defending Attorney E. T. Lippincott, in his argument to the jury, declared there was no clearer case than that which was made against Mason by the state. "The silence of John Mason here today means something, gentlemen of the jury. He doesn't want that long record of his opened up for the investigation. Therefore he sits silent under the charge," Lippincott said.

DURBIN MAKES PLEA.

Attorney Francis W. Durbin, representing Mason, told the jury Deputy Sheriff Fraunreiter was mistaken in his testimony, because it failed to tally with Patrolman Hamilton's evidence. He laid much stress on the fact the revolver could not be identified as one in the possession of Mason and said it was hardly possible any sane man would carry a gun of such calibre in his outside coat pocket.

Durbin declared the state had fallen down in the effort to make a case against Mason.

BOSTON.—(By United Press).—Boston papers appeared in condensed form today, following a sudden and "unauthorized" strike of several hundred typesetters.

The printers walked out last night after learning that an arbitration board had refused their request for higher wages. The arbiters' decision was that the men should complete their contract at the same wages and the same hours now in force.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—Newspapers here were helpless today, because of a compositors' strike. The men walked out, declaring the publishers had failed to appoint members to a board of arbitration to draft a wage agreement supplanting one which expired last October.

LABOR SPLIT ON IRISH QUESTION

Cross-Demands Presented to Federation Convention

BOYCOTT ON ENGLAND ASKED

This Proposition is Opposed by Large Faction

DENVER, Colo. — (By Associated Press) — Efforts to prevent a widening of the breach between the two factions of Irish sympathizers among the delegates was being made today at the 41st annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Advocates of Irish freedom, it was learned, at a mass meeting last night appointed a committee which was attempting to draft a resolution that would be satisfactory to both the extreme and conservative groups of the assemblage.

When this committee started to work, T. J. Wind, Chicago, secretary of the Labor Bureau of the American commission of Irish independence, served notice that two "official resolutions of the Irish republic" must be incorporated in their resolution, or he would act independently in presenting the documents to the convention.

BOYCOTT PROPOSED

The "official resolutions" called for a boycott, not only on British-made goods, but on all products made by English capital, and the boycott of British insurance companies and similar business organizations. They also provide that the executive council of the federation shall immediately compile a list of English-made goods and firms backed by British capital and send it to every one of the members of organized labor in the United States.

Mr. Wind declared that the resolutions were drawn by "high officials of the Irish republic," but declined to state whether Eamon de Valera, "president of the Irish republic," had taken part in their drawing.

RECOGNITION DEMAND

A large faction of delegates have announced opposition to the "official resolutions," and have presented to the committee a resolution demanding recognition of the Irish by the United States, withdrawal of British troops from Ireland, and repayment by England of the $9,000,000 loaned to her by the United States. Four other resolutions of similar character have also been submitted.

The delegates opposing the boycott resolution declared that it would be detrimental to the labor movement and an affront to the members of the federation who are connected with local unions of Canada. Any resolution embodying a boycott, they assert, will be defeated on the floor of the convention.

Despite the protest of supporters of the "official resolutions," Irish sympathizers at the mass meeting declined to substitute them for all other resolutions.

YOUNG GIRL HAS WONDERMIND

High School Student is Mind Reading Marvel

RECEIVED 1,000 LETTERS

Began Giving Messages When Twelve Years Old

ATCHISON, Kan. — (By International News Service) — Ask the Dennis girl, she'll tell you. That's how it all started and today Miss Eugene Dennis, sixteen, is known all thru this section of Kansas as a mind-reading marvel whose powers have startled not only this city, but the surrounding towns as well.

The little frame house of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Dennis, is flooded with letters, asking Eugene's aid. Letters, letters, letters from front door to back, and still they come in a never-ending stream with every trip of the postman to the cottage door. Mrs. Dennis says there are a thousand of them—and that figure is not exaggerated, for they are piled in boxes, on top of the place in the window boxes, on the dining room sideboard, the parlor table and in Eugene's room upstairs.

They came in a flood as the girl's powers became known thruout the countryside and Eugene is patiently numbering them as they arrive and is spending nearly all her spare time trying to answer them. She is almost fearful in her desire to give those who appeal to her in distress the benefit of her powers, but it is a trying task for she goes to high school each day and can only devote her spare time to her monumental task.

TALENT DEVELOPED EARLY

"Tell them just to give me a chance," she pleads. "A thousand letters is a lot of mail and it takes time to concentrate upon every one and send the answer. I'm doing the best I can, and I'm going to answer every one if it takes from now 'til doomsday."

Eugene's mind-reading power was not developed in a day. It did not come to her in a vision or as the result of some chance experiment in telepathic science. She was born a psychic and her psychic powers have developed naturally.

When she was but two years old, according to her mother, she said one evening: "Mother, there is something wrong with me." A little later she said: "Mother, I see an old man." After that she said she saw a man and some people. Mrs. Dennis paid no attention to this, but as the child grew she observed that her little girl knew many things she could not understand.

At school she saw other "faces" and "forms," which greatly puzzled her playmates.

AS NORMAL GIRL OTHERWISE

When she was eleven a reader at a psychic research society meeting saw her and told her that she was a medium. "I can see a band of thirty guides around you," she said. From that time on Eugene developed her power, which she perfectly understands. When twelve years old she began giving messages. By powers were always used as "parlor tricks," and gradually her uncanny scenes of revealing things became noised around. Startling things began to happen. She related things which she could not possibly know except thru psychic connection, and finally even the skeptic began to be convinced.

Recently she has been sought far and wide by many and then the flood of letters began to come. Eugene scarcely knows what to do, she is so besieged with calls, messages and letters. She is in her third year at high school and intends to remain at her studies until she finishes her course, even tho she maintains high pile of letters awaits her when she returns home after classes, not to play, but to sit at the dining room table and begin to write.

CONGRESS TIED UP ON PEACE PLANS

House and Senate Stand by Respective Measures

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Whether the senate will accept the Porter peace resolution, passed late yesterday by the house, as a substitute for the Knox resolution already adopted by the senate, was an uncertain question today. Failure to accept would send the whole question to conference, but as leaders in both branches of congress have declared their intention of holding out for their respective measures, there was no indication that a speedy agreement would be reached.

Adoption of the Porter resolution, which would terminate the state of war with Germany and Austria-Hungary, came after two days of hard fighting, but the vote was decisive, 49 Democrats joining the Republicans for a total of 305 votes in favor as against 61 opposing. Only one Republican Representative, Kelly, of Michigan, voted against the resolution. All attempts to amend the measure failed.

The Knox resolution differs from the Porter resolution in that it would repeal the declaration of war. Opponents have claimed that congress ought not to repeal the war declaration as it might be regarded as a repudiation of the war itself. Debate on the Porter resolution centered chiefly about the question of whether American rights would be properly safeguarded.

The house was not in session today, being adjourned until tomorrow.

DR. YOUNG OUSTED

Board of Trustees Dismisses Miami University Dean

OXFORD — (By Associated Press) — Dismissal of Dr. Arthur Everett Young, professor of mathematics and dean of the Junior College of Miami University, was formally announced last night following the adoption of a resolution by the board of trustees of the university, terminating Dr. Young's connection as a member of the teaching force.

Following Dr. Young's charges a month ago concerning moral and other conditions at Miami, students assembled in mass meetings and requested the resignation of Dr. Young. At that time the board of trustees investigated, Dr. Young's charges and found that they were untrue, they claim. Dr. Young, was then given a leave of absence until the close of the present school year—today.

Both alumni and members of the board of trustees declared last night that reports circulated that Miami University was formally announced last night following the adoption of a resolution by the board of trustees of the university, terminating Dr. Young's connection as a member of the teaching force.

"SPOONERS' PARADISE"

GOES UP IN FLAMES

CHICAGO — Oak Park is in the throes of a desperate dispute—all hinging on a mysterious fire. An abandoned church property recently caught fire at night. It was saved from total loss only thru the valiant work of volunteer firemen—all very young men.

The youthful firemen said the building had been fired by an incendiary and are now staging amateur sleuth hunts thruout the fashionable suburb. They are aided by scores of blithesome lassies.

You guessed it—the building was Oak Park's "Spooners' Paradise."

Neighbors recently appealed to police to chase the spooners: from the church property, but the police remained neutral. Now Cupid's followers declare the neighbors tried to take the law into their own hands.

RIOT IS STARTED TO BARKING

Irish Republicans Plan to Prevent George's Visit

BELFAST. — (By Associated Press) — Rioting accompanied by heavy revolver and rifle firing, was renewed in the Clifton-st area of this city early today. In authoritative circles it was asserted that the rioting was organized by Republicans for the purpose of preventing the visit of King George to Belfast on June 22, for the purpose of attending the state opening of the Ulster parliament.

Business men going to the center of the city from the suburbs this morning at eight o'clock found themselves in the midst of a riot in Clifton-st.

The center of the disorder was adjacent to the Ulster military headquarters, which is flanked by North Queen-st and the Carrick Hill. Republican forces of these districts waited for shipyard workers and opened fire.

Staid port-hatted merchants edged about amid flying bullets and one newspaper man had a very narrow escape, as a lamp post behind which he had sought shelter was struck by bullets. Stenographers fled, screaming from the battle zone, and tram cars, with their passengers lying flat on the floors, dashed past at record speed.

Police were hurried from the Glenravel-st barracks nearby, but the rioting continued for some time, altho at a more subdued pace. North-st, joining Royal-ave with the Shank Hill district, was swept by bullets from Carrick Hill and Millfield.

Several thousand shipyard workers are reported to have been kept from their posts by the riot.

W. H. SCROGGS of Buffalo, N. Y., who says "Neutrone Prescription 99" cured him of rheumatism after everything else, even a change of climate, failed.

"While working for Dodge Bros., Detroit, a sudden attack of rheumatism crippled me all up. My legs, knees and feet swelled to double size. Western doctors did not help me and I had to stop work. Then came East, my cousin thinking a change of climate would help. Instead, I got worse than ever; my arms becoming so useless that my wife had to feed me through a tube. Eastern doctors and remedies proved no better than those of Detroit. "Every day my cousin urged me to try 'Neutrone Prescription 99'. It had cured him. So with little faith, I began to take this wonderful remedy. Truly, it seemed that a miracle had happened. Swellings went down, my crippled joints straightened out and in two weeks I was back to work, as well or even better than ever. Three bottles cured me, but I took a couple more to drive out any trace of rheumatic poison. "Neutrone Prescription 99" put me back to work, and I have worked steadily ever since. It cured me and I trust this letter will persuade all sufferers to get the same help that I got. They will never regret it." "Neutrone Prescription 99" now comes in tablet as well as liquid form, whichever is preferred. Leading Druggists everywhere. Butler's Drug Store, Baldwin's Central Drug Store, Hunter's Drug Stores.

LEAGUE HELPS CHILD IN DIVORCE CASES

CINCINNATI — In the past twenty years approximately of the population of the United States has been involved in divorces," declared C. C. Carstens, of New York City, national director of the Child Welfare League of America, who conferred here with the thirty executives of local child welfare institutions.

"The child is generally merely a pawn on the chessboard and is given but little consideration in most divorce cases," he said. "The total number concerned in these divorce cases has been 5,335,000 men, women and children. These figures are based on census returns and official data. They give an idea of the vast extent of the problem of the child's welfare in divorce cases."

"The Child Welfare League is striving to see that the child gets a square deal. We are also actively interested in protecting the minds of girls and youths under sixteen years of age from the baneful influence of 'movie' pictures of the eternal triangle type. We believe that rigid censorship of the movies is the proper remedy."

Women's National Foundation to Erect Buildings

BUY MILLION DOLLAR SITE

Every Farm Home to Have Interest in Washington Institution

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The Women's National Foundation, recently organized here as a means to focus the interests of the women of the country in cooperation with women's organizations has bought a million dollar tract of land in the heart of the Connecticut residential district and plans to erect buildings costing about $3,500,000. The site of the home of organization is the old Dean tract on Connecticut ave. hill. It is proposed that the remaining estate of extensive grounds in the region which has not yielded to the upturn march of business and apartment houses.

Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, president of the foundation has described its objects in an address to its thirty members as follows:

TO STUDY AMERICANISM

"Our purpose is a cooperative work for humanity. We are the mothers, wives and sisters of the nation, the natural housekeepers of the nation, and it behooves us to see that our house is put in order and kept clean. It is not our purpose to try to direct the policies of members of the foundation, but as a body to give to the women of all parties the opportunities, to study their respective platforms and to realize just what they have before them now that they have taken up the duties of citizenship. We must study Americanism and try to bring back the old simple standards and the high ideals and to stand with a solid front against the insidious propaganda that is endeavoring to disintegrate us."

TO INVITE OTHER CLUBS

"One of the objects of the foundation is simply to invite clubs and club members who desire to feel that they have a club of their own at the nation's capital. We are not going to attempt to subordinate any club, but the foundation will supplement their work and add to it."

It is the purpose of the foundation in every part of the country so that the most remote village or farmhouse may have a proprietary interest in the club of clubs in Washington.

There will be a board of forty governors with the president, six vice-presidents and an executive committee to direct the work of the organization. The vice presidents include Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. James Carroll Brazier and Mrs. John Hayes Hammond.

HYMEN CASSIDIES, of Baltimore, N. Y., who says Phosphated Iron saved him from another nervous breakdown.

"Yes, I am free from nervousness, and in good health for the first time in twelve years, and you can judge from that how strong I am for Phosphated Iron," said Mr. Hymen Cassidies of Baltimore, N. Y.

"No one knows the suffering I had to stand up under. It would just get the best of me so that I had to come in off the road for weeks at a time."

"Since my youth I have been a sufferer from nervous attacks, headaches and indigestion which completely undermined my health and I became so run down I could not sleep, could not eat, and life did not seem worth living."

Thanks to Phosphated Iron, I am now back in fighting trim, and feel like a boy again; nerves like steel, headaches gone, I sleep like a log, and enjoy everything I eat."

"I have gained twenty-eight pounds and am still putting on weight. I wish I could induce every sick, nervous, run-down man or woman to take Phosphated Iron. After all it has done for me, I know it would help them."

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS PASSING

THAT electric railways of Ohio are doomed now seems apparent. Announcement made by B. J. Jones, receiver for the Ohio Electric, indicates that there isn't a great amount of hope in the future for new construction or the survival of the lines that are still in operation. It is felt among electric railway men that the transportation lines that came into being during the present generation and which have played such an important part in the transportation needs of the country, are doomed to failure.

The cause can be laid at the door of the motor car industry, for the most part. The receiver of the Ohio Electric, which includes the Lima city street car lines, says it is only a question of time until every electric road in the United States will go out of business. Some may survive longer than others, he says, but their day has passed. The development of the automobile has hastened this end. Every time a new highway is constructed or an old one paved or macadamized, it helps to spell ruin for the electric railways.

It is a matter of history that not a street car system has been built in any city in the country during the past ten years. In fact, many systems have been abandoned because they could not be made to pay, or break even. The automobile is slowly bringing about the ruin of electric railways. Therefore, the solution of the transportation problem lies in the automobile itself.

It also means that families of the future, most likely of the next generation, must provide their own means of transportation, just the same as they do their homes, clothing and food at present. Motor cars are becoming essential for moving about the city and for inter-city travel. The automobile, in time, will be an every-day necessity for nearly everyone.

Steam railroads and some electric lines will continue for long trips, but city street cars and local interurban service in all parts of the country will in time fall victim to the encroachments of the motor car, most likely.

SWAPPING WIVES DENIED

JUDGE W. A. Kittinger of the circuit court at Anderson, Ind., said when he certified to another court divorce complaints by Glee Muncy against William Muncy and Loretta Huffman against German Huffman: "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife is the law that prevents me from trying these cases."

Replying recently by letter to Carrington Marshall, Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme court, Judge Kittinger told in detail how the two couples had called upon him before the women filed complaints simultaneously, and that Muncy had said they contemplated a mutual exchange of husbands and wives.

They were warned not to file the complaints in Judge Kittinger's court, but they did so. The court held that there is no need of looking up Blackstone on these cases; that all one needs to do is go back to the fundamental basic law, the Ten Commandments.

The stand taken by the Indiana judge is deserving of commendation. He refused to cheapen the courts and smirch his own judicial robes by being a party to such a travesty. An unlimited amount of nerve or a lack of grey matter must have actuated these couples in plainly stating to the court that it was their desire to swap husbands and wives.

The divorce evil is bad enough as it is, without couples appearing before a court and plainly confessing that a proposed application for legal separation is wholly and solely for the purpose of bringing about a change in domestic relations for the quartette, all of whom are on friendly terms and that the causes set forth in the divorce petitions are mere matter of form, to satisfy the law.

The general public looks on in amused tolerance in such cases, depending upon the courts to handle them in the proper manner. It is not likely that Judge Kittinger will have other than the commendation of those who have noted his action. And if another court grants decrees under the circumstances, it is quite likely that the displeasure of the people of his district will be visited on his head at the first opportunity.

THE QUESTION OF WOMEN'S DRESS

WHEN Mrs. Warren G. Harding refused to be drawn into a discussion of the style of women's dress a short time ago and upon that occasion declared that to be a matter to be determined by individuals in their own homes, she laid down a basis rule of no small value.

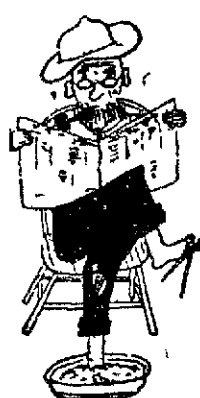

What a woman should wear or not wear is entirely a matter for her to decide in conformance with the dictates of her conscience. If she follows the rule and not the exception, she will strive for beauty and harmony. If she does this she probably will violate no moral laws in the mode of her dress.

There are points beyond which men and women cannot go and be exempt from the consequence of the law. Aside from a few scattering cases, it has not been necessary for guardians of the law to step in and order a different style of dress. It is not likely that members of either sex will go to extremes which will force general arrests.

Styles change rapidly. What was good taste yesterday or today may be entirely out of keeping with standards of tomorrow. Much has been said concerning the trend towards immodest or indecent dress in the United States. Short skirts and low waists have been decried and ridiculed without effect upon the wearers. It is not probable that they will go beyond the accepted standards of decency, however. Common sense may be counted upon to take care of that.

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

TEN FINGERED MICE

When a cake is nicely frosted and it's put away for tea And it looks as trim and proper as a chocolate cake should be, Would it puzzle you at evening as you brought it from the ledge To find the chocolate missing from its smooth and shiny edge? As you viewed the cake in sorrow would you look around and say, "Who's been nibbling in the pantry when he should have been at play?" And if little eyes look guilty as they hungered for a slice, Would you take Dad's explanation that it must have been the mice?

Oh, I'm sorry for the household that can keep a frosted cake Smooth and perfect thru the day-time, for the hearts of them must ache— For it must be very lonely to be living in a house Where the pantry's never ravaged by a gift ten-fingered mouse. Tho I've traveled far past forty, I confess that I, myself, Even now will nip a morsel from the good things on the shelf, And I never blame the youngsters who discover chocolate cake. For the tiny little samples which exultantly they take.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is not a lucky day. Those signing contracts or leases in which land sales are involved, should postpone such activity until later, since this is a most unfortunate time for such proceedings. Under this rule of the stars farmers may have difficulty, used by transportation troubles and freight costs. During the next month, owing to the position of Saturn, the movement of crops may become a national question. This summer may be a critical period for Great Britain. Persons whose birthday this is should exercise great care in writing letters or business documents. Children born on this day may be temperamental and inclined to change their employment frequently. TODAY'S HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

DON'T LET THIS ANHEDONIA GET YOU

Just to make sure we all understand and let me say again that anhedonia is incapacity to take pleasure in being alive. We are not harping particularly on splanchnic anhedonia. Not a new disease, but just a sort of remissive phrase which expresses the gloom that darkens the existence of those who drift along on something short of health plus, when this drifting is due to displacement or sagging of divers and sundry inroads. Like eyestrain, tuberculosis, cardiovascular degeneration or senile alopecia (denudation of the dome in oldsters), pronounced displacement or sagging of one or more abdominal viscera (doctors call it splanchno-pnoia) may occur for a considerable time before the victim comprehends or discovers what is the matter. That is to say, in each and all of the conditions mentioned, although the victim, unless mentally dull, does not recognize that he lacks health plus, or is not perfectly well, he or she may experience no symptoms which would direct attention to the origin of trouble. Just anhedonia, in other words.

Now if I suspected that any reader of these hints would follow what I have said on this subject, to the unwarrantable conclusion that he or she, having this here new anhedonia for certain, must therefore be suffering from a sagging stomach or something like that, I'd discontinue this series right here and return to good standard subjects like overeating and bad air which do little harm to even healthy persons who just imagine they have 'em.

It may be safe to judge from the essay of Dr. Charles A. L. Reed, previously referred to.

Every case of chronic constipation, every case of chronic headache, every case of psychosis (mental disease or disturbance), every case of chronic toxemia whether convulsive (meaning epilepsy) or non-convulsive (perhaps migraine).

LUCREZIA BORGIA'S LIFE FILMED

"FORBIDDEN FRUIT" ANOTHER NEW DE MILLE PRODUCTION

(By ESTHER WAGNER)

MISS LUCREZIA BORGIA is our subject for discussion today. A movie of her life is being made by Ernest Lubitsch, the director who filmed the life of Du Barry and of Anne Boleyn, queen of Henry VIII.

Miss Lucretia is popularly known as a secret poisoner. Recent researches make it appear that earlier accounts of her doings are rather exaggerated.

In earlier centuries secret poisonings and hired poisoners cut more of a figure than nowadays.

Aqua Tofana was a poisonous liquid reputed to have been much used by wives to check off husbands in Italy between 1500 and 1700.

It was concocted by a woman named Tofana and was also called Aqua Di Napoli.

Lavoisier and Lavigoreux, French midwives and fortune-tellers, are still remembered as poisoners. Marquise De Brinvilliers was another, having been taught the evil art by an officer named Sainte Croix, who learned it in Italy.

"FORBIDDEN FRUIT" ANOTHER DE MILLE SERMON

HERE'S another of the famous DeMille dressed-up brand of films, presenting the old, old story in a slightly different way. Isn't it amazing upon what slender threads the producers nowadays build up an expensive drama? They dress up a simple little story like a circus horse, put a lot of gilt and glitter on the outside, and expect us to be perfectly satisfied. Behold "Forbidden Fruit," which gives us an everyday plot, but fans are going wild about it, because it's so pretty.

Cecil de Mille, like George Fitzmaurice, is great on decoration. His pictures are always a feast for the eyes. You can almost hear the swish of his silks, feel the downy softness of his ermines and smell the fragrance of his perfumes. Not that he sacrifices any part of the plot for the sake of beauty, but the clothes that make the woman and the upholstery that makes the furniture always comes before the woman or the furniture itself.

In this picture he tells of a woman who is forced to keep her husband because he is too lazy to rustle up a job. She does it cheerfully, until she is given a chance to impersonate a wealthy society lady for a few days.

WHO'S HAROLD LLOYD'S LEADING LADY NOW?

WORD comes that Miss Mildred Davis, who has been leading lady for Harold Lloyd for quite some time, will be starred by Hal Roach after she finishes two or three more pictures with the spectacled comedian. Harold is silent as to who her successor will be.

YOUNG MR. INGRAM GAINS NEW LAURELS

ON JUNE 22, Rex Ingram will have the degree of B. P. A. bestowed upon him by Yale University, in consideration of his direction of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." Ingram attended Trinity College, Dublin. He went to Yale upon coming to this country, but did not graduate. BUT, he made "The Four Horsemen," which we have yet to see.

NEW GERMAN PICTURES DECLARED TO BE WORTHY OF THEATRE VISIT

The new German photoplays which are being exhibited in this country are worth a trip to any picture house. The actors are all new to American audiences, but they may well be termed all-star casts. In both "Passion" and "Deception" there is not one amateurish actor and that is more than could be said of many of our American pictures. "Passion" is the greater of the two, in my opinion, because of the beautiful and talented Pola Negri, who plays the part of the famous Madame Du Barry.

"Deception," which deals with the story of Henry VIII and his ingenious manner of changing wives every once in a while. Emil Jennings plays the part of Henry VIII, who, it will be remembered, took upon himself the woe of eight wives, much against the will of the powers at Rome. Of course, being a wise monarch, he did not take them all at once, but one at a time. As fast as a new beauty appeared on the scene a wife was cast off and a new one taken.

The settings and mob scenes in both of these pictures are no notable as the acting and the story material is, of course, excellent. One wonders, however, why Germany with her vast wealth of court stories, should pick on England and France for historical material. Why not picture the life of Katherine of

Emil Jennings as Henry VIII in "Deception."

Molly Malone wears only tatters and a pair of shoes in "A Poor Relation."

MARY ANDERSON SIGNS Mary Anderson, long a favorite of the screen and now playing with Charles Ray, will appear in a series of comedy dramas to be made by the Spencer Productions Co. (L. A.) with Scott Dunlap, well known director handling the megaphone.

"Forbidden Fruit" is another picture we urge you to see. Such costly and beautiful pictures aren't given us often.

At the Faurot until Friday.

KNIT BLAZER IS SMART FOR GOLF

(By ELOISE)

Let me see, now how many times has the death knell of the sweater coat been sounded? At least once during each of the past five or six seasons, and still it appears serenely at the beginning of each summer season only to become more popular with every new day. The slip-over, the tie-back, the Peter Pan, the ripple, and all the other host of sweaters which are not the regulation coat were supposed to have gone away with the coat, but here we see a simple, plain knitted sweater coat designed for sports wear which will undoubtedly take its place among the first in millady's favor.

This is a blazer coat with the ever popular blazer stripes. It is just the thing for the golf course or the yacht and comes in many pretty and startling color combinations. This model is brown and gold and a brown and gold yarn hat with a softly upturned brim makes a pretty sports model for wear with it.

WATER CAN'T HIT "PEACH BLOOM" IF FAIR BATHER DONS THIS DEVICE

Bathing beauty at Palm Beach wearing one of the new diving bells.

Since milady took to applying a beautiful "peach bloom" complexion to her face just before appearing in public the problem of how to preserve (no pun meant) that complexion while enjoying a dip in the surf has bothered said lady. Now comes the complexion saver, so to speak. It is a little diving bell made of rubber and celluloid which fastens over the fair bather's head and permits her to wade and swim about at her pleasure. Of course she mustn't dive with it, for air holes are needed in the top.

Honoring Miss Audrey Akerman and her fiancé, Eli Hauenstein, Pandora, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Stueber, Cole and Lakewood-ave entertained very informally at dinner at their home, Monday evening.

GIRL IN DOUBT ABOUT FLANCE

Fears He Loves Another Girl to Whom He Was Engaged

Dear Miss Smart: I am a young girl and am engaged because I feel he may still care for me. This young man to whom I am engaged is fine and splendid but he was engaged before. He never mentions a word about it nor does he ever speak of the girl. Often it makes me very unhappy because I feel he may still care for the girl. Do you think it would be wise for me to bring the subject up some time? UNHAPPY

Do not be unwise and question your fiancé about his engagement to another. It would be as senseless as a man who is engaged to a girl and who has asked you to become his wife. It is not probable that he still cherishes any deep affection for his former fiancée. Do not "cross the bridge before you get there." It is likely that he considers the engagement a closed incident. He, no doubt, refuses to let his mind dwell on the subject and you should do likewise.

It is a great mistake to permit yourself to become unhappy and dissatisfied over a former love affair of your fiancé. If your love for him is sincere and deep you will be contented with the fact that he loves you and cares for you more than anyone else.

Dear Miss Smart: Should a girl thank a man when he has taken her to some place of amusement? I have heard some say you should and others that you shouldn't. JUST CURIOUS

Generally a man does not invite a girl or woman to go to some place of amusement with him unless he enjoys her company. You see in that case it is she who confers the favor. She should not thank her escort outright but by expressing her enjoyment of the occasion she may show her appreciation.

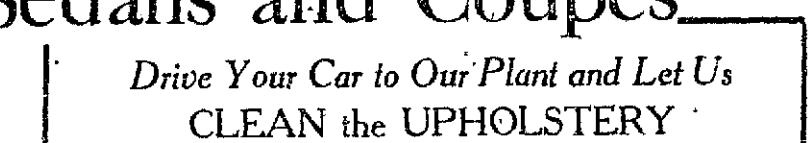

Dear Miss Smart: Would you please give me a good recipe for strawberry short cake? YOUNG HOUSEWIFE

Sift enough flour to fill a pint measure, then sift again together with one teaspoon of cream of tartar, one half teaspoon of soda and one fourth teaspoon salt. Add two tablespoons of sugar and rub into this mixture four tablespoons of butter. Stir in one cup of milk. Lightly roll the dough and cut or shape into individual cakes and bake in biscuit pans or in muffin rings. Mash one quart of strawberries which have been washed and hulled and add to them three fourths of a cup of sugar. When the cakes are baked take them from the oven, split open and butter them and put the strawberries in between the top. Make a meringue with the white of egg and one tablespoon of powdered sugar and spread over the cakes.

Dear Miss Smart: My girl-friend and I are both in love with the same man. He invites us both to go to the movies and different places and I think he likes us both but sometimes I think it is nothing more than friendship on his part. Would you advise me to give him up for the other or should I accept his attentions in the future? VIRGINIA

So you are involved in "the eternal triangle"? Do not refuse the invitations of the young man. He probably thinks of both of you as simply very good girl friends and companions and it at any time he really cares for either of you in a more serious manner, he will show his preference. Enjoy the young man's company but be fair and straightforward with your girl friend.

MR. BILLINGS SPENDS HIS DIME

(By DANA BURNET.)

Mr. Billings delicately lifted his hand. "Did I say anything about the cost? Well—here is your thousand dollars. Now, I want a nice little supper for three. And—ah, yes, we have some music?"

"Yes, certainly."

"But there is only the hotel orchestra."

"I'll take it," said Mr. Billings. The proprietor gazed speechlessly at this Croesus for an instant, then bowed in a manner that was almost a salutation.

"Senior," he cried, "you shall have everything of the best, of the most extreme cost senior!"

Long wine, Dona Susana selected one and presented it to Mr. Billings. She herself took the other.

"Long live the government!" she cried, holding up her glass.

"Long live the government!" echoed Mr. Billings.

They drank.

Then Dona Susana drew her mantle across the lower part of her face, and Mr. Billings, donning his mask, they walked out, arm in arm, to the open carriage that stood waiting at the curb.

Mr. Billings sank back upon his seat beside Dona Susana. A wonderful glow permeated his whole being. His eyes, peering out thru the holes in his mask, beheld a blurred kaleidoscopic scene. Infinite numbers of torches, their flames pale in the twilight, waved and flowed before him.

A slight drowsiness momentarily threatened Mr. Billings' brain. He tried to speak to his companion. Curiously enough, his tongue refused its office.

Two months went by, and the end of that time found Cheery well established in her new home, yet still singularly out of tune with the life that she was supposed to fit into so smoothly.

The townspeople had entertained her royally and she had been made to feel welcome in their midst, but for all that she was an entirely different Cherry from the one who had entered her husband's ancestral home some three months before.

Life had settled itself into a humdrum existence for the young couple, even as Mrs. Randall had predicted that it would, and as Wellsburg standards demanded that it should. Cheery found herself a wife with far too much time on her hands, few interests outside of the tennis club and a great hunger in her heart.

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

Two months went by, and the end of that time found Cheery well established in her new home, yet still singularly out of tune with the life that she was supposed to fit into so smoothly.

Cheery found herself a wife with far too much time on her hands, few interests outside of the tennis club and a great hunger in her heart.

Mr. Billings was wonderful; Mr. Billings was witty; President Jaurez, he ate little and drank less, seemed nevertheless to enjoy heartily his escape from official routine.

As last he rose and make a brief speech.

"Senior," he said, addressing Mr. Billings, "you have given me a great pleasure. In return I wish to confer upon you a high honor—the highest, that is in my power to bestow. I wish to relinquish in your favor the privilege of riding tomorrow night, during the hour of the fiesta, in Dona Susana's carriage!"

"Esteaban!" murmured the lady, gazing down at her plate.

"My dear president!" exclaimed Mr. Billings, quite overcome by this evidence of the ex-president's esteem.

Mr. Billings saw strange and bizarre events transpire. The drowsiness that had assailed him a moment since now rose like a huge wave to engulf him; but for the instant he sat still conscious, still unengulfed, staring out from the shadow of obliterating sleep, watching the wild horsemen as they rode straight thru the crowd toward him!

Not many were the wild horsemen, not more than a dozen at the most, but they made the noise of a thousand. They shot off pistols, they shrieked; they shouted, they lashed their ponies furiously over the cobblestones. They had the countenances of devils.

Mr. Billings impetuously sprang to his feet.

"Cousin Susana," he declared, "I do accept—I do accept—with all my heart!"

It was the day of the Fiesta. Dona Susana stood at the window with Mr. Billings beside her peering down excitedly into the street, which had already begun to pour bright words.

"Very pretty," said Mr. Billings. "Very beautiful! By the way, must have a costume, mustn't I?"

"Of course! I've already sent Jefferson to the costumer's."

"You think of everything!"

A little later Dona Susana went in to dress.

Mr. Billings retired to his lordly guest room. Shortly the negro appeared, bearing a voluminous blue domino and hood. This disguise Mr. Billings put on over his ordinary clothes. Then he made his way back to Dona Susana's drawing room.

Dona Susana sat at her dressing table. She was dressed in a gorgeous Spanish gypsy costume—short skirt, yellow blouse, black shoes and stockings and black lace mantilla. There was a red flower in her hair. She looked a veritable queen of the roving clan.

"Come!" she said, laying her head upon his arm, "let us drink a glass of champagne and go. The procession will be forming."

GROH PLAYS

CINCINNATI, O., June 19.—The first time since the 1920 season, Groh Henry (Heinie) Groh was at third base for the Cincinnati Nationals
Monday in the game with Brooklyn.
Groh was recently reinstated by Baseball Commissioner Landis, following his signing up with the Red-after a holdout lasting several weeks. Judge Landis expressly stipulated that the reinstatement was effective only if Groh played for the remainder of the season with the Reds, which he had repeatedly declared he would not do. Groh's return to the lineup was the result of Second Baseaman Fonseca going to the bench to nurse a sore foot.
Bohne being shifted to second base.

man at East Chicago, Ind., on the night of June 25. It was announced here. Burman and Lynch have met three times and the honors are even.
Each has earned a decision while their last clash at Cleveland was called a draw by a majority of ring writers.

CHAMP IS FEELING AS FIT AS THE PROVERBIAL FIDDLE AND IS READY TO GO TO IT

(By JACK DEMPSEY)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Two newspapermen persuaded me to step out on the scales at camp to-day, right after I had finished a series of pinocchio games with Make Trant, of Chicago. They were surprised when the scales registered 196 pounds, or within six pounds of the weight I expect to make for Georges Carpentier.

Right away one of them said
"Now I know why Kearns ordered
you to stop work for a while.
You're now nearly in shape."
I'll tell you why I stopped work.
I stopped because I felt great. I could fight to-morrow if necessary. I'm right in the pink the way I feel today. Too much work now would be harmful for me and might make me go stale. That's why I'm laying off for a few days.

I may not start going again before Thursday or Friday.
I spend most of the day hiking.
I started out early in the morning and rounded along the boardwalk for a couple of miles. I got into an airplane to have my picture taken in it, but I knew Tex Richard would have a fit if he thought I was going flying, so I did not take a spin.

When we came back home I loved around for a while and then played pinocchio. I had a golf game arranged for the afternoon but my partner ran out on me.
Since it was announced that there was no work, we closed the camp down and didn't let even the newspaper men in. When I came out thru the gate for my hike

there was a bunch of the writers waiting for me. I sat around talking with them for a long time.
They seemed worried to know why they weren't allowed inside camp.
I hope the "boys" noticed my case, carrying one.
My eye is thoroughly healed.
There is just a trace of the scar left and I could box to-day if I wanted to. By the time I am ready to start work there will not be a mark where the cut was.

I'll be glad when this vacation of mine is over. I like to be doing something all the time and I pretty hard to kill time playing pinocchio, especially when you're training for the world's championship fight.

CITY CLUBS MUST GO THRU WITH THEIR PRESENT TEAMS

Unless a player's name was verified at the start of the season he is ineligible to play with a team represented in the Lima Business club league.

That ruling, made some time ago, was adhered to at a meeting of the baseball commission here Monday night. The decision was made following the request of a team in the league to be allowed to add another name to its roster.

It was agreed upon at the start that the player limit would be placed at 25. However, in event a team did not wish to carry that many men it was permissible.
But at no period of the season will
the team be allowed to pick up men until the limit was reached. This necessitated the team going thru the season with the number of men certified to the commission.

The team which brought up the question at Monday night's session started the season with, and certified 14 names to the commission. Now that team wants to add another man, but the commission says nothing can be done.

The commission also decided that expenses will have to be cut down, as the gate receipts thus far have been insufficient to defray the expenses. What will be the first step taken to curtail the expenses is not known at this time.

Also some controversy concerning the revision of the schedule was expected, this subject was not brought to the commission's attention. As a result the revised schedule as published on these pages last Sunday will stand.

LIONS MEET ELKS THIS AFTERNOON

A warm contest is anticipated at Murphy's park Monday afternoon when the Lions, holding down the cellar position, cross bats with the Elks, who are holding up the stellar position. The Elks, like any league team, are confident, are confident leading aggregation, are confident that they are the best gang of ball players in the loop. The Lions are fossors in the loop, are confident imbued with their winning spirit, as the result of their recent meeting at which time all members of the club pledged their earnest support to the ball team.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR LARGE BOWLING SEASON

Preparatory to what is expected to be one of the most enthusiastic bowling seasons in the history of the game here, the Knights of Columbus allegedly are being improved by exports from the factory, according to Bernie Holloran, in charge of the alleys.
The local bowling season, while it does not open until October 1, promises to be exceedingly interesting insofar as new bowling organizations are to be formed, Holloran declared.

Plans are being made now to organize a city league which will be composed of the best players from clubs expected to be offered to the winners of this race. At pres-

GEORGES WANTS TO LAND FIRST PUNCH

Georges Carpentier, when he meets Jack Dempsey July 2, expects to land the first telling punch. In a conversation with his friend and adviser Captain Mallet, he said that he would drop Dempsey if the latter made one single mistake.
"If the challenger," Captain Mallet said, "is not afraid and thinks he has better than an even chance to win, if willingness, a clear eye and a deadly right hand coupled with speed and endurance, can win."
Georges thinks he will be the world's champion.

"He realizes that Dempsey will be the best man he has ever met, but notwithstanding he is going in determined to do his best and if he loses he will take it like a man."
Carpentier always before his big fights has expressed something of the sort. I have just quoted and invariably his prediction has come true, either in many cases we have disagreed with him.

In the fight with Bombardier
Wells I personally thought that Georges would be battered to a pulp and advised Descamps not to commit to the match. But Georges settled the whole thing in regards words he has spoken. In that fight Georges went down for the count of nine in the first round and when he came to his corner said his chances were still even. He went down three times for the count of eight in the second round; the third was neutral and he knocked out Wells in the fourth. When he came to his corner then he said:
"I had an even chance and I took it."

Ohio Football Star Killed In Utah

SALT LAKE CITY.—Glen C.
Gray, Overhill football star, who was accidentally shot and killed at Du-chene, Utah, June 6, was a member of an assessment work party on oil shale land. After supper on the night that Gray was killed, four men in the party started out to hunt bear, and separated to cover a thicket. One of the party mistook Gray for a bear when he came unexpectedly upon them and fired.

RING COMPLETED

BENTON HARROR, Mich.—Arrangements are being completed here this week for the bout to be staged on the afternoon of Monday,
July 1, between Sailer Friedman,
Chicago lightweight and Benny Leonard, lightweight champion.
The ring and amphitheatre have been completed. Friedman is expected to arrive here Wednesday to begin training at once. The champion and his staff including Joe Benjamin, the Pacific coast light-weight, are expected to reach Chicago Wednesday or Thursday, and after training there for a few days, will come on to the camp here to finish the work.

THE FOX AND THE BULLDOG

James J. Corbett and Jack Dempsey.

This photo of Jim Corbett and Jack Dempsey, taken recently at Atlantic City, is a wonderful picture, showing the two distinct types in the boxing game.

On the left you see Jim Corbett, the first heavyweight champion under the Marquis of Queensberry rules. He was the man who made under the greatest ring ass. It was Corbett who sent brute strength cleverness to the rear. Before that, under London prize rules, and bulldog tactics to the rear. The short nose and the strength of a bull ruled the roost.

Corbett proved that was all wrong. He knocked out the hero of that style of fighting and made the brainy fighter the king.
Look at the picture again. Look at the noses of Corbett and Dempsey.
Corbett has the long nose of the fox, Dempsey the short nose of the bulldog.
Our greatest boxers and ring masters have had long noses. There were Tommy Ryan, Kid McCoy, Jack Dempsey (the Nonpareil), Abe Attell, and Bombardier Wells. To-day we have Georges Carpentier and Benny Leonard.

Our greatest sluggers have had short noses such as adorns Dempsey.
There were John L. Sullivan, Jim Jeffries, Bob Fitzsimmons, Terry Mc-Govern and Kid Lavigne.

In the coming battle the long and short noses will meet.
Is the clever man to rule, or the bulldog?

Dempsey Is Wiz With Pasteboards

By JACK McLAULIFFE
(Undefeated Lightweight Champion)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—There's no doubt that Jack Dempsey is a champion with a deck of cards.

I helped him remove a couple of hours from his schedule with a game of pinocchio today and he surely took me. I was lucky to get away with my clothes.

I had a good chance, tho, to get a line on Dempsey's condition and temperament. He's in perfect shape and there isn't the slightest symptom of nervousness about him. He is not losing his temper over the lull in his training activities, as so many of the old champions would do.

Jack Kearns told me today that Dempsey weighed 192 pounds, but Dempsey weighed to me. His face is full and he's carrying some extra weight around his hips.
Otherwise, he is ready to step into the ring.

The cut over his eye doesn't look so serious as most people seem to believe it is. It is healing rapidly as it is not on the bone. I do not believe he is running much of a risk of having the Frenchman open it early in the fight.

Dempsey surprises me with his boyishness. He has just the right disposition to carry him thru the hard days ahead. He will talk about anything but fight.

Martin Meets Cap Roper Next Friday

TERRA ALTA, W. Va.—Bob Martin, heavyweight champion of the A.
E. F., has been matched to meet Captain Bob Roper, of Chicago at Grand Rapids, Mich., next Friday, it was announced here by Martin's manager.

Martin also will meet Frank Moran of Pittsburgh in New York July 1.
It was said.

Gunboat Smith, who was knocked out by the army champion, in their bout Memorial day, is helping Martin to get in shape for his future bouts.

FALLACY OF WINTER PREDICTIONS IS PROVEN

Two of the greatest of baseball players were declared last winter by the hot stove league patrons to have seen their best days. The winter fans agreed that Ty Cobb would find the handicap of age and managerial duties with the Detroit Tigers too great to permit the stellar player, in the American league and that Walter Johnson of Washington, holder of many pitching records, was thru.

The fallacy of winter predictions had been proved in the case of Cobb for the Tiger manager is playing as good ball as at any time in his career and is far ahead of his usual pace for this time of the year. In the case of Johnson, however, the records tend more to uphold the winter predictions, for the fire ball king does not seem to be able to get started.

MARVEL AT COBB'S WORK.
Cobb's work has been the wonder of the season. Always a slow starter and well down the percentage lists in the early weeks of the season, the Georgia flash is fighting for the league leadership in batting, stands well to the top in extra base hits, is running the bases with all his old abandon and in the field
covers nearly the whole outfield.
His arm is cutting off runners who seek to stretch hits and many of the Tiger's games have been placed in the won column entirely thru the work of the manager-give Cobb
the latest averages give Cobb batting average of .411, only four points behind his teammate, Harry Heilmann, who is leading the league. Cobb has played in 38 games and cracked out 65 hits in 158 times at bat for a total of 119 bases. His safe blows include two doubles, nine triples and five home runs. For the average player, several of his triples would have been only doubles but Cobb continues to stretch his hits to an extra base.
Proof of his speed is found in six stolen bases, which, while not the mark Cobb generally sets for his games, still is a faster pace than any other veteran can stand.

JOHNSON HAS CHANGED.
Walter Johnson has never been
the same since he reached the height of his ambition last summer by hurling a no hit game. The great pitcher had a sore arm after that and numerous trips to physicians seem to do little good. Johnson, always maintaining a games won and lost percentage far in advance of his team's record, Washington has maintained a better than his team's record, Washington has won only two of his teams score of victories and is credited with four losses for an average of .333.

Further proof that Johnson is not

Former Texans Are In Triple Play

NEW YORK.—The feat of hitting two home runs in one game was performed by three major league batters Monday. Ruth made two and brought his total to twenty-two. The other sluggers were Whitted of the Pittsburgh Nationals and Mann of the St. Louis Nationals.

Rice of Washington hit one homerun and added to it two doubles and two singles. Five hits in five times at bat was the record for Maravich of the Pittsburgh Nationals. All were singles.

Home runs have featured every one of the past thirteen contests played in the Philadelphia and can League park. Three of the four made yesterday were hit by the St.
Louis team which lost.

A triple play was executed by the New York Nationals against St.
Louis. When the Cardinals tried the hit and run game, Second Baseman Monroe caught "Hornsbys" line drive, threw to Kelly, doubling Stock off first, Kelly throwing to Patterson, catching Fournier, of second to the Giants this season from the Texas League.

BUSINESS GIVEN SEVERE JOLT

Question Raised in Sweeping Statements in Radical Tirades

COAL PRODUCERS ARE HIT

Law-Breakers Also Come in For Much Criticism

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special) — Are our business men fit to be entrusted with the running of the business activities of the country?

This is the question raised by the following tirade against business launched by a man who is rapidly developing "radical" tendencies. This man has followed events very closely and has done a lot of serious thinking. Here are the chief points in his sweeping statement that "business is rotten to the core."

"The minute the searchlight is turned upon any business and hidden things are revealed the public receives a shock. I don't know why the public should feel shocked; they ought to expect it. If by now they have seen the same thing happen over and over and over again ever since Hughes showed up the life insurance business. Nothing of this kind shocks me any more. I have long since learned to expect it—and I am not often disappointed."

"What industry can you name that has come out of any deep probe without discredit?"

"The newspapers have been full of infamous practices which have been going on for good. I know how the public, it is shown, has been misled by the New York fire insurance people at every turn. They are all working in league against the poor, defenseless public. Laws recently were laughed at. But will anybody go to jail? My guess is that nobody will."

"How borrowers of mortgage money were fleeced and maltreated by savings banks, insurance companies and other rich lenders in New York and neighborhood is only typical of what the public ought to expect by now."

"A few days ago it was the people in the building business that were being shown up. Brindell, the grafting labor leader, is in Sing Sing but how many of the corrupt employers who have been exposed are wearing prison stripes? If every employer connected with the building industry who was guilty of wrong doing had been sentenced to Sing Sing, there would be no room in it for anybody else. It was shown that the whole business was honeycombed with graft and bribery and corruption. But you bet it was the dear public who has to pay for it all. If some of these scoundrels who made building impossible were led through the East Side streets and up to a lot of the ordinary dwellers there they would see what their devilish deeds have brought about—and I don't think they would feel very proud of themselves. Instead, however, they are driving around in their limousines and occupying swell homes, from their loot."

"And then the coal people! They are a beautiful bunch, aren't they? They are certainly got their while the getting was good. And they got away with it by racketeering, profiteering, and making the public pay for their profits at the expense of the coal miners. We read in the newspapers that soft coal was being given away by some mines at the pit mouth; but try to buy some, and you find a different state of things. The anthracite gang are doing business at the old stand in the same old way. Every now and again they emit about their prices they get at the mine mouth. But when a poor devil comes along trying to make ends meet, he goes to buy a ton he is lucky if he gets it under $15. Who's doing the profiteering, if it isn't the big fellows at the top? If it is only a lot of little fellows, surely it shouldn't be very hard to get hold of them by the neck. If the anthracite coal profiteers are not steering things straight toward government ownership, I miss my guess."

"The public's eyes are being opened about the meaning of all those innocent looking associations gotten up in about every industry and trade in the country. When the lid is ripped off it turns out that these associations nine times in ten have been hatched in the brain of some scheming lawyer who then shows the people in the industry how they can get around a law against price agreements. The public have been shown pretty often that there isn't any law that a smart lawyer can't cheat if he clients supply him with enough money. This live-and-let-live policy that is so much talked about when these associations hold their conventions or their banquets sound very beautiful—and it is very beautiful for those in the game. But the public is now let in on this live-and-let-live policy. It is confined only to the gentlemen who do the profiteering, not to those of us who have to buy."

"I used to have a very high idea of business men but—well, in face of these things that I have mentioned and a thousand other things that everybody knows has been going on, now do you think I or any one else looks on as cheerful?"

What's the answer?

SUGAR MARKET.—The raw sugar market was weak today and prices declined on the basis of four cents for centrifugal, the lowest level recorded in over five years, under continued pressure of Porto Ricans.

Raw sugar futures were easier, and prices at midday were one to six cents net lower.

There were no changes in refined sugar which are listed at 60 for fine granulated.

Refined futures were nominal.

RAILS LEAD DROP IN STOCKS

Oils, Motors Stronger—Close is Irregular

NEW YORK — The trend of prices at the opening of today's stock market suggested an extension of yesterday's rally, a number of leaders showing gains of 1 to 1 1/2 points. This was immediately followed, however, by a resumption in large volume of the recent selling movement in rails, oil and equipment. Northern Pacific reversed its initial gain of one point with an abrupt decline of 2 1/2 points and Great Northern lost 2 1/2 points. Mexican petroleum fell 2 points, Baldwin Locomotive 1 1/2, Pure Oil 1 1/2 and General Asphalt 1. Steels, motors, sugars, tobaccos and textiles also reacted.

The weakness of Great Northern, which increased its decline to 2 1/2 points, was the cause of the decline in the first hour. Shorts extended their commitments in equipments, steels and rubber specialties. Pullman, Baldwin, American Brake Shoe, Crucible, U. S. Rubber, Kelly Springfield Tires and Goodyear common and preferred sustained extreme losses of 1 1/2 to 4 points. Sugars, tobaccos and low grade oils displayed little rallying power. Studebaker, Sears-Roebuck, American Linsseed, and A. T. & T. common and preferred sustained extreme losses of 1 1/2 to 4 points. Sugars, tobaccos and low grade oils displayed little rallying power. Studebaker, Sears-Roebuck, American Linsseed, and A. T. & T. common and preferred sustained extreme losses of 1 1/2 to 4 points.

Oils, motors and miscellaneous specialties represented the constructive side of today's stock market, but secondary rails, rubbers and food issues were among the reactionary stocks. Sales approximated 750,000 shares.

The closing was irregular.

GERMANS DESPISE TREATY SIGNER

Reichstag Spends Time Discussing Tax-Dodging Case

CHIEF OF CENTRUM PARTY

His Return to Cabinet Would Help Allies

(BY FRANK L. MASON)

BERLIN — (International News Service) — The Erzberger tax-dodging case, like celebrated Drayfus case in France, shows signs of developing into a factional feud threatening to extend over years. Although it is faced with the difficult problems of reparation, of disarming the unwilling Bavarians, and of running a bankrupt nation, the Reichstag prefers to spend much of its time in the lobby discussing whether or not Matthias Erzberger is a tax-dodger.

Matthias Erzberger is the one man, more than any other, who is responsible for the Germans signing the Versailles Treaty. As a result he is hated by the group of pan-Germans which had had expectations of signing a far different treaty, with clauses making Belgium a commercial colony of Germany. A former Secretary of the Treasury under the Emperor, Karl Helfferich, was the leader in the movement to disgrace Erzberger and drive him from political life.

In January 1920 while Erzberger was Minister of Finance, his tax return certificates were stolen from the Finance Ministry; the material from them began to appear in the royalist press. Erzberger immediately ordered an investigation of his tax payments and withdrew from the post as Minister of Finance. He left office with Nostke at the time of the Kapp revolution.

HELP ALLIES

For the past year Erzberger has been one of the powers behind the cabinet, and, although he lived in the strictest retirement, he has been taken into counsel on many of the important crises through the government has passed. His Socialist and Centrum friends wish him to return to active political life and are seeking to reinstate him in the cabinet.

They accuse the Monarchist group of having made Erzberger the sacrifice of a political intrigue, and by means of interpellations in the Reichstag and discussions in the lobby are attempting to make the Erzberger case a boomerang against the Royalists.

The Centrum party claims that its chief not only is not a tax-dodger, but that he overpaid his taxes and ate the court decision in evidence. Erzberger was neither fined nor ordered to pay up back taxes.

The political fight over Erzberger is of the greatest importance to the allies for the reason that if Erzberger is finally politically cleared, he will probably return to the cabinet and the Entente will have the assistance in the fulfillment of the treaty of one of the political group through whose influence the treaty was signed.

CANADIAN VETERANS TO ASSIST LEGION

NEW YORK — The Great War Veterans' Association of Canada is prepared to assist the American Legion in bringing slackers back to the United States, according to a letter received by the American Legion from C. G. MacNeil, Dominion secretary-treasurer of the Canadian organization, who wrote:

"I have no hesitation in stating that this association is quite prepared to do everything possible to assist the American Legion in its effort to secure the extradition of Bergdoll. It is not yet clear what action may be obtained thru the Canadian Government, nevertheless, if we can be of any service to you our co-operation may be relied upon."

"Pending further advice from your organization in this matter, I will make inquiries in order to determine along what lines our energies may be most profitably directed."

The letter from the Canadian organization is in reply to a request from the American Legion relative to obtaining Bergdoll's extradition from Germany, because he is alleged to have used false Canadian passports in making his escape.

BIG NAVY PLAN HIT BY POMERENE

Urges Disarmament Instead of Preparing for Future Wars

NO AGGRESSIVE DESIGNS

Senator Delivers Commencement Address at Miami University

OXFORD, O. — (By Associated Press.)—We should not be preparing for future wars, but doing our best to heal the wounds of the war just ended, Senator Allen Pomerene of Ohio declared here today in a commencement address at Miami University.

"The country is weighted down with the burdens of the war, and it seems to me that of all the times in our history, this is the hour when we should not be preparing for future wars, but doing our best to heal the wounds of the war just ended," Senator Pomerene said, "and doing our best to prevent war in the future, and its consequent loss of life and treasure."

to have the biggest navy in the world, he said, "with our resources and our men, no other people can compete with us."

STRONG AT SEA

"But why do we want it? We have no aggressive designs upon any other nation, and at sea we are stronger than any save one."

A plan of disarmament was urged by the senator. "What harm can come from trying now to negotiate a plan of disarmament, and meanwhile to give the president the power to suspend new construction, in whole or in part, if the prospect of agreement seems encouraging?" he asked.

Discussing "America—what it means," the Ohio Democratic senator declared "the domestic affairs of other nations are theirs to settle and our domestic relations are ours to settle. We ought not to interfere with theirs, and they shall not interfere with ours."

VERSAILLES TREATY

However, he said, his stand on ratification of the Versailles treaty, with proper reservations, is the same.

"Failure to ratify it," he continued, "now is water over the dam, but I still include the hope that there may be some association of the nations of the world which will join in common counsel over the settlement of international disputes, to the end that the awful carnage which we have witnessed and from which we have suffered may at least be reduced to a minimum."

Immigration should be restricted, Senator Pomerene asserted. "After we have born the burdens of participating in the world war, why should we continue to receive a constant stream of immigrants, when we well know that in our own country so many are out of work," he said.

A square dance, scheduled to be held by the Security Benefit association in Eagle Hall Wednesday, has been postponed on account of the extreme warm weather, announcement was made Tuesday.

COUNCIL WOULD UNSEAT HIM FOR FREQUENT "NIPS"

"Had-Je-Me-Maar"

The Dutch parliament has tried to deprive "Had-Je-Me-Maar," known as the beggar councillor of the Dutch port of Amsterdam, of his seat, according to reports. The objection to him, says the report, is that he hinders too often and too freely. "Had-Je-Me-Maar," denies he touches liquor too often to be contented.

CHINESE WORSHIP AIRPLANES

Machines Carrying Food Replace Dragon As Idol

PEKING — (By International News Service) — China's ancient dragon, feared and worshipped for centuries, has a foreign rival. Tall spread, his wings glinting in the brilliant sunlight, this newcomer floats and soars unmoored above a hundred scattered villages daily. As he utters his buzzing, rattling cry, Chinese stream from their huts and hail him with shouts, running pell-mell toward the spot where he prepares to alight. They swarm around him with admiring looks.

Airplanes, as means of food distribution, are now being used over a considerable section of the Eastern famine area. These machines carry several hundred pounds of supplies, usually articles needed in an emergency by relief workers who are in inaccessible places. The their capacity is limited, the number of trips they can make in a day is very large and as messenger vehicles they are proving invaluable in checking up on conditions over large areas.

At first the arrival of an airplane near a village almost depopulated the place. When it became evident, however, that these terrifying sky-vans were food transports, the fear soon gave way to interest and admiration. Now the most difficult part of the relief aviator's work is to make a landing anywhere in the vicinity of a village without mowing down the inhabitants.

To widen the range of this airplane service, gasoline supplies have been cached in various districts, enabling planes on messenger or "famine scouting" duty to remain away from the larger cities for several days at a time. In investigating new areas they are much more efficient than any other means yet found, and the clear, dry air of the famine districts, without rain, provides admirable conditions for their use. Occasional wind storms are their worst enemies, forcing them to ride for hours above the smother of dust and sand that sweeps across the plains.

MUTT AND JEFF—IT LOOKS LIKE ANOTHER PUNK WEEK FOR MUTT—

By BUD FISHER

SHORT SHAVINGS

Two powerful stevedores, who had some sort of falling out, were engaged in unloading a vessel at a St. Louis dock. Complimentary remarks and warnings of intended violence were exchanged whenever the two passed each other with their trucks. "You just keep on pecking around wid me," declared one of the men, "an' you is gwine be able to settle a mighty big question for de scientific folks!"

"What question dat?" asked the other.

"Kin de dead speak!"

A braggart chess player played three games with a stranger and lost them all. Next day a friend asked him how he had come off. "Oh," said he, "I didn't win the first game, and my opponent didn't lose the second. As for the third, I wanted to draw it, but he wouldn't agree."

He had just married. He had been popular indeed, but had now resolved to settle down. His bride and he were dining out. A very lovely lady passed, gave him a look of recognition and a dangerous smile. So dangerous was the smile that the bride asked: "Horace, who is that woman?" Horace held up his hand. "Be reasonable," he protested. "Don't go bothering me about who she is. I'll have trouble enough explaining to her who you are."

HARVARD STUDENT IN JAIL WANTS PICTURE TAKEN FOR HEIRLOOM

SALEM, Mass. — Paul Jackson, twenty-two years old, a Harvard student, insisted on being locked up in a cell after being arrested here on a charge of operating an automobile without a license.

He also sought to borrow a camera so that he might have a picture of himself behind the bars as a "family heirloom." He told the officers it was the most fun he had in many a day.

After securing bail he invited all the officers in the station from the captain down out to dinner.

BURIAL AT SALEM. The body of Jean Cox, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Cox, 338 N. Jefferson-st., will be laid to rest at Salem cemetery, near Gomer. Death occurred Monday night. Besides the parents, three sisters and a brother survive.

PLANES TO BOMB DUMMY VILLAGE

Airplane Tricks Will Be Shown in London Pageant

BY WILLIAM L. MALLABAR. LONDON — (International News Service)—Just how a bombing squadron destroyed a town or village during the great war is to be shown in every detail at the Aerial Pageant, which takes place on July 2, at Hendon.

First of all there will be seen the village, complete in every detail, even to dummy figures, which will represent the inhabitants. Scaplanes will fly over it and drop their bombs.

Then there will be fights in the air between defending planes and the aggressors. Single machines and squadrons will oppose each other and every trick known to airmen will be staged. Altogether over one hundred machines will take part in this display, and those few who did not have a chance to see aeroplanes in action during the war will be able to get some idea of what an aerial combat is.

The object of the pageant is to raise funds for the Royal Air Force Memorial, a commemoration of the war service of the Royal Naval Air Force, the Royal Flying Corps, the Royal Air Force and the Australian Flying Corps.

A record crowd is expected at the

AN ADVERTISEMENT HELPED HER. Mrs. Lurline Blackie, 18 Duane St., Washington, Pa., writes: "Last winter my 3-year-old girl caught a cold which left her with a dry cough. It bothered her most at night and she would cough until she vomited. I think she must have had whooping cough. I saw an advertisement for Foley's Honey and Tar. I tried it and bought two bottles and her cough left her before she finished the second bottle. She had gotten awfully thin, but now she is as fat as ever."—Chas. J. CHOIR GIRL, OUSTED BY PASTOR, IS ASKED TO RETURN BY DEACON

RICHMOND, Va.—The board of deacons of the Woodland Heights Baptist church has voted to ask Miss Julia Priddy, eighteen-year-old choir singer, to resume her place in the church choir which she was requested to vacate by the church pastor, Rev. W. A. Guntion, following her participation in an informal dance given at a reception tendered students of the John Marshall High School by Governor and Mrs. Westmoreland Davis.

The chairman of the board, in previously opposing a proposal of the pastor that a letter of censure be addressed to Miss Priddy, was upheld by his fellow members by a vote of six to two.

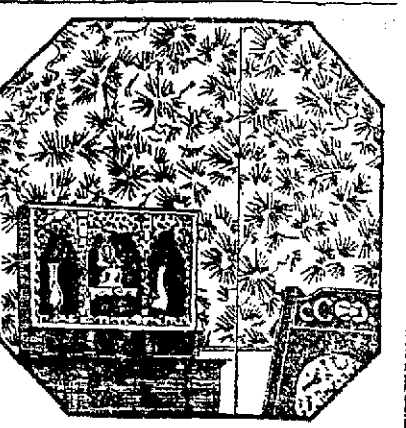

BABY BORN ON PEACE DAY

After Mother Had Been Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Salisbury, Mass.—"For seven years I had a female trouble and such bearing-down pains I could hardly do my housework. The doctor said, 'If you can have another baby it might be the best thing for you but I am afraid you cannot.' I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my baby was born on 'Peace Day.' If women would only take your Vegetable Compound they would have better health. I always recommend your Vegetable Compound to the neighbors."—Mrs. TRACY PATTER, 2 Lincoln Ave., Salisbury, Massachusetts.

The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as it is impossible for a weak sickly wife to bring healthy children into the world.

Therefore if a woman is suffering from a displacement, backache, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down pains, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," she should profit by Mrs. Patten's experience and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be restored to health.

'WARE WASTE AND WEAR WELL!

Human Bodies Are Poisoned by Their Own Waste. Most Diseases Are Preventable.

The human body has to be heated and fine foods burned inside the body produce much waste. All this waste should be removed from the body regularly, thoroughly, daily, by the eliminative organs—which are the bowels, kidneys, skin, and to some extent the lungs. These should act in harmony—if the bowels are inactive extra effort is required of the others, which easily become deranged. Many temporarily but the after-effects are harmful. Many remedies are advertised, some of which have proven year after year to be reliable, efficient, and without harmful action or effect. Take Beecham's Pills for example. For over 70 years Beecham's has been a household word all over the world. 70 years of use by all sorts of folks, men, women and even children, have proven first, that Beecham's Pills do what is claimed for them; second, that they are harmless, do not produce bad effects. Some medicine forces Nature to unnatural action. Other medicines, like those contained in Beecham's Pills assist Nature, act mildly, persuade and hence produce no harmful effects. It is common to find families in which Beecham's have been used by several generations, their use handed down from father to son and from mother to daughter. That's the best possible recommendation for any remedy. Every druggist sells Beecham's, is glad to do so because he knows that their reputation has been won by merit.
